

To serve you with good printing. No matter what the nature of the job may be we are ready to do it at a price that will be satisfactory.

The Mahoning Dispatch

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, OCTOBER 12, 1917.

PEOPLE READ THIS PAPER

That's why it would be profitable for you to advertise in it. If there is anything that you want the quickest and best way to supply that want is by placing an advertisement in this paper.

$1.00 A YEAR

NORTH LIMA

Oct. 10—The boys of Beaver township who left Sunday morning for Youngstown for the training camp at Chillicothe were honored by a party of friends in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Botesch Saturday evening. Those leaving from the township Sunday were Paul Weaver, Carl Lescher, Hugh Gleckler, Robert Tiemann and Frank Kellner. Many friends went to Youngstown Sunday morning to see them off on the train.

Our township was well represented at the temperance rally in the Grand at Youngstown Sunday afternoon. Another meeting is announced for next Sunday.

Glen Gourley and family will move here soon from Meadville and occupy the house of Joseph Metzler recently purchased of Mrs. Hattie Miley. Mr. Gourley is employed as drafter in the General Fireproofing Co. at Youngstown, and has been boarding for some time in the family of J. M. Hahn.

Mrs. J. M. Hahn will entertain the girls of the knitting club of the schools in her home Friday evening. The evening will be devoted to knitting for the Red Cross and a social time.

J. J. Marks and wife of Columbiana were Sunday guests at Jacob Elser's. Jay Glenn and family spent Sunday in Niles and Girard visiting relatives.

Mrs. Solomon Crouse was hostess to the ladies of the missionary society of Mt. Olivet church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ephraim Gleckler of Eureka and Mrs. Sue Grove of Leontina spent Friday with Mrs. Jacob Elser.

Earl Snyder and family of Austintown were Sunday guests of Mrs. A. H. Wolgast and family.

Mrs. C. A. Bonnett of Petersburg is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Perry Stiller, and family.

Quarterly communion service with reception of new members was held Sunday at Mt. Olivet Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Mentzer and daughter will spend the winter in Florida and expect to leave soon.

Delegates from the different Sunday schools spent the latter part of last week in Youngstown attending the county convention.

Many from here attended the dedication exercises of the McKinley memorial building at Niles Friday. The high school and grammar grades were dismissed for the day, and most of the pupils went to Niles.

Elmer Plum of Medina county has been in this vicinity visiting old friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Elser and son Donald were Youngstown visitors Sunday.

Robert Tiemann, one of the local boys who left for Camp Sherman Sunday, was honored with a farewell party at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lipp in Youngstown Friday evening.

Members of the carpet and drapery department of the McKinley Co. comprised the list of guests. Mr. Tiemann has been employed in that department the last three years, and fellow employees expressed much regret at his leaving them.

Rev. L. E. Hill was pleasantly surprised last week one evening when members of his charge at New Springfield called on him and family to spend the evening together in a social way.

The ladies of the Red Cross made and filled a number of comfort kits last week, and each of the boys who left Sunday was given one. Interest in knitting keeps increasing and there are many requests for yarn from the local officers. Every lady, whether she belongs to the Red Cross or not, is urged to have interest and to call at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hahn who will be glad to supply material and directions.

Isaac Snyder, a well known farmer of Woodworth, died today of influenza incident to advanced years, aged 83. His wife and six children survive. Funeral services Friday afternoon from the house will be in charge of Rev. Rohrbach, pastor of Mt. Olivet Reformed church of which the deceased was a member.

ELLSWORTH

Oct. 10—A good-sized crowd attended the shower given Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Saturday evening at the home of J. Wilson.

The young men that left here Sunday for Camp Sherman were Fred Max, Lewis May and Howard Yeager. Mrs. John Loughlin was in Canfield last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jack spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bennett.

Mrs. B. Davidson and daughter Hilma were in Youngstown Friday.

A. R. Schaffer and son Harry, William Anna and Pauline Schaffer motored to Warren Sunday to see the boys depart for Camp Sherman.

Asker Case spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Arthur Baringer and Mrs. E. E. Matthews had a narrow escape when their horse frightened and threw the occupants out of the buggy. Fortunately they were not seriously hurt.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cutting, a son.

Sterling Tolby and Myron Mathews attended the boys' congress in Youngstown last week.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Ressler last Thursday afternoon with a good attendance.

MARQUIS

Oct. 12—J. D. Coy and wife, Mrs. Ray Hewitt and daughter Ruth of Salem visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Nancy Collier is the guest of Mrs. L. M. Cox in Canfield.

J. D. Schaaf was in Shady Hollow one day last week.

W. H. Coy filled a silo for Maurice Goodman of Toole's farmers, Monday.

Mrs. Lucinda Hollabaugh of Calla spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Hoffman.

Glenn and Goldie Houts were here from Calla Sunday.

L. A. Coy, wife and son Paul of North Lima and W. W. Coy and family of Salem were callers here Sunday.

Remember the school fair and picnic at the Calla school house Thursday evening, Oct. 18.

ISLAND

Oct. 10—Edwin Weaver laid a concrete floor in H. H. Calvin's garage, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver, Merle and Ivan Wither, Henry, Fannie and Mary Riehl, Abram Martin and Lizzie Riehl spent Sunday with D. C. Wither and family.

Rev. Moses Horst and Henry Kopman of Wadsworth were over Sunday visitors here. The former conducted communion services in the white Menomite church, Sunday.

David Lehman called Sunday on Ezra Knopp.

John Martin of Chambersburg, Pa., is spending a week with his children.

Henry Lehman and family, Moses Horst and Henry Koppes were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stempfl.

J. J. Martin and John Ward are among the new owners of autos.

Norman Lehman called on Swope Brothers Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Eberly of Wayne county is visiting her brother, John Horst.

S. I. Martin and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin and their father, John Martin, visited Mrs. Noah Knopp and family, Sunday.

Israel Rohrer, wife and daughter Mabel of Dayton, Va., are visiting his sister, Mrs. Adam Wenger.

John Horst, Mrs. Eberly and Mrs. Lovina Horst visited at Alvin Darrow's Sunday.

Walter Bush has been employed by Fred Brudery to help do up his fall work and take care of his dairy this winter.

Israel Wenger and family, Israel Rohrer and Harry Showalter and family were entertained Sunday at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver.

Alfred Rhodes has his new sawmill factory in operation.

Mrs. J. C. Martin, Mrs. Minerva Yoder and Mrs. Susan Martin called at D. L. Weaver's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brudery spent Thursday in Salem.

Mrs. D. R. Lehman and daughter Mollie visited Sunday at Harvey Good's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Zimmerman of Clarksville called on their son Roy and wife, Friday.

S. D. Culp is excavating the cellar for his new residence.

Guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Jack Niles were Mr. and Mrs. William Brudery, Wm. and Fred Shenk and Albert Moses of Sebring.

Mrs. Mary Ranewright of Cleveland was a week-end and Sunday visitor with Lee Bowker and family.

Mrs. Kate McClure and daughter, Mrs. Nellie Reichard, spent Monday with the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Burns, in East Lewistown.

Potatoes are moving at $1.30 a bushel which, being bought by hucksters and delivered to the Youngstown market.

A baby boy came Monday morning to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zeigler.

Mrs. W. J. Archer and son Frank are spending some time with friends in Nebraska.

First snow of the season came last Saturday.

Jonas Wisler is seriously ill with dysentery.

BELOIT

Oct. 10—A farewell party was given Friday evening at the home of J. M. Newton and family. A fine service lunch was prepared by Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Morris Hawkins.

Victrola and piano music together with conversation served to while away the evening hours. Two fine solid gold identification rings were given Mr. McMunn by Mr. and Mrs. Newton, a number of other remembrances being also received.

Harold Newton, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newton, had the misfortune Friday evening to fall and break his right arm.

The ladies of Beloit Twelve have worked faithfully, completing comfort kits for the boys leaving for Chillicothe. All the boys will be provided also with Bibles.

Owen Cunningham resigned his position at the Pennsylvania railway station and accepted a place in Alliance, he moving his family there.

Leo Gedatzen has purchased and has taken possession of the property formerly occupied by J. G. Urmonson. Mr. Urmonson has moved to Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend of Damascus moved to the residence property of Dr. Westfall, near the Friends' church.

Arthur Heacock is building an addition to his residence.

Miss Sarah Cameron of New Castle is visiting with Mrs. Doll Cameron.

Mrs. Will Early and Mrs. Emil Miller were in Alliance Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George Stanford and Mrs. Lee Rose were Beloit callers Thursday.

Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Hawkins were in Alliance Thursday afternoon.

W. E. Pramer and family have moved to the Levi Stanley home, Westville road.

SHADY HOLLOW

Oct. 10—Mrs. Elias Bare is visiting her sister in Pennsylvania.

Howard Kyle, Sylvanus Heintzelman and wife and Mrs. Ada Frye and daughters Mildred and Margaret spent Sunday in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heintzelman were in Canfield and Salem Monday. Farmers on this street all have their silos filled.

Homers Bare had business in Youngstown Monday afternoon.

Ernest Withers and family spent Sunday in Boardman.

Quite a number from here attended the grange fair in Greenford Saturday.

Sunday visitors at Elias Bare's were Alvin Knopp and family of Island and Jacob Zeigler of North Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. Syl Heintzelman on Sunday visited Ray Kyle in Lowellville, Stark county.

Miss Maxie Paulin spent last Sunday in Canton.

Leander Moherman of Tippecanoe spent Sunday evening at O. H. Paulin's.

For results use the Dispatch classified columns.

MINERAL RIDGE

Oct. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones of Weirton, W. Va., are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Croft.

Mr. and Mrs. David of Dayton, Ohio, are week-end guests of Rev. J. P. Girkbride.

Mrs. Sam Evans has gone to Scranton, Pa., to spend the winter with her son.

The Study Club met Monday evening with Miss Sophia Davis. A short business meeting preceded the regular program. A character sketch and sketch of the works of Washington Irving by Mrs. Elizabeth Prosser was greatly enjoyed, a number of pictures being used to advantage by the speaker.

The Legend of Sleepy Hollow was reviewed by Mrs. Emma Parsons. Roll call was followed by a short social time when future plans for club meetings were discussed. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Annie Delaney.

Chas. Brill, Simon Bostwick, J. T. Williams, P. C. Mamer and Harry Dunningan spent the week-end at Camp Sherman visiting relatives.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tompkins, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Brudersack of Toledo arrived here Thursday. They will make their home with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, of German avenue.

Joseph Thomas is critically ill at his home on the town line. His sister, Mrs. Jacob Helwig, of Cleveland has been called to his bedside.

Relatives have received no definite word as yet concerning the death of Edward Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis, his parents, sent a message to Washington, D. C., asking for information. It was reported last week that he had been killed in battle.

Among the number of selected men who left for camp Sunday were Ed Lynch, Will Davis, Wm. O'Maley, Geo. Bowman and Harry Grace from this vicinity.

Miss Jane Pugh of Ellsworth City, Pa., was a week-end guest in the village.

Mrs. Anna Tatchell of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan Irwin.

Mrs. Eliza Parker is critically ill. Mrs. Arthur Rodenbrugh entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian church from 1 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Winifred Jones is again confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Bernard Wasser and daughters spent Friday in Cleveland.

Mrs. John Larmey entertained the members of the Profrat and Epistrophe Club at a social tea on Wednesday evening.

Our schools were closed Friday on account of the dedication of the McKinley Memorial in Niles.

POLAND

Oct. 10—This place has had a slow but steady growth since the coming of the trolley line and as time passes will become more and more an important suburb of Youngstown.

Will Findley and family will soon leave for their Florida home to spend the winter.

Heavy frosts this week have killed tender vegetation and whitened uncut corn.

Agnes Lucas has returned home after spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel West.

Mrs. C. B. Kaysen, Mrs. F. B. Horne and Paul Brown Patterson of Youngstown called at the home of Mrs. W. H. Baldwin, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray Warner of San Diego and Mrs. Springer of Chicago were callers here last Friday.

J. D. and L. Liddle of Youngstown spent Saturday with their mother, Mrs. James Liddle.

Mrs. William Findley and little daughter Margaret called on Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rudge in Youngstown Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Dunkle of South Bend, Ind., is visiting in the home of her brother, Free Cover.

Mrs. Julia Deits has gone to Detroit where she will finish her course in domestic science.

Miss Laurabelle Stewart of the Youngstown City hospital recently called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart.

Miss Bertha Welk visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Gillen are entertaining Mrs. Thomas Chesborough of New York.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Oct. 10—The temperance program rendered Sunday evening by the United Evangelical Sunday school was quite interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor have returned from an extended trip through Iowa and Missouri.

E. D. Ripple's house is now occupied by a family from Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Rourke and Mr. Harold and Prof. Mrs. A. C. McMahon called on Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Osborn in Youngstown last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Osborn will leave in about two weeks for Florida to remain during the winter.

Some boys got into trouble through stretching a rope across the road and snaring automobiles. Dangerous business.

Quite a number from here attended the dedication of the McKinley Monument in Niles last Friday.

Rayfield Shofner is running the roller for R. O'Rourke on the Burkey road.

Burt and John Pennell, with their families, of Youngstown called on Mrs. Pennell Sunday evening.

A farmers' institute will be held in the centralized school building in Austintown Dec. 10-12. One of the best speakers in the state will be present. Music by the township orchestra.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schrum last Saturday evening at the home of John M. Bishop.

The writer recently received a letter from Joe Shofner stating that he is well and enjoying camp life. His address is Co. M, 222 Inf., Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O.

What has become of the old-fashioned hospitable home where strangers were pressed to stay for dinner and help themselves to the ham and eggs?

Advertise in the Dispatch.

BOARDMAN

Oct. 10—Miss Elizabeth Moody spent a few days in Cleveland.

Mrs. Rose of Alliance visited her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Barton, over Sunday.

Homor Holl and family visited in Akron over Sunday.

Wm. Gollway and family visited Mrs. Gollway's parents in East Palestine over Sunday. Her brother left Sunday morning for Chillicothe for military training.

Three young men from here left Sunday morning for Chillicothe for military training. They were Ora Auble, Jas. Zedaker and Ford Holl.

H. C. Heintzelman and family called on John Price of Canfield Sunday evening.

Boardman boys played football with South High in Youngstown Friday afternoon. Score 6 to 19 in favor of South High.

Henry Dushman and family of Brownlee Woods visited at Nathan Hallett's Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Altoedier of Lisbon spent Friday night here with his brother, Linn.

The Christian Endeavor held a social at Clyde Simon's of Indianapolis avenue Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Christman of Woodworth called at H. C. Heintzelman's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Agnew of Youngstown called at Frank Agnew's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wirt were in Canfield Monday.

H. N. Starr is putting a roof on the silo on his farm, west of town.

Frank Hitchcock and C. T. Gathier unloaded a car of coal here last week.

'Squire and Mrs. Brown will stay in Youngstown with their daughter, Mrs. Cunningham, during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frantz and children of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore.

GEEBURG

Oct. 10—Yeager was in Youngstown Saturday evening.

James Leonard and family attended a kitchen shower given Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Fenton at the home of Jet Wilson in Ellsworth last Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Bartholomew, Mrs. Mantus Yeager and son Howard were in Youngstown Saturday afternoon.

Anna Demes of Youngstown was a week-end guest at Geo. Jerry's.

Mrs. Roy Williams and two sons, Ed and Myron, were in Canfield Friday afternoon.

Earl Yeager and family of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crum, Rachel Yeager of North Street and Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew were Sunday guests at Heaman Yeager's in Berlin.

Dr. J. M. Kendig of Canfield, Harold Reed and wife and Mrs. E. H. Graves were callers at Mantus Yeager's Sunday afternoon.

Urias Yeager filled his silo Friday and Mantus Yeager Monday and Tuesday.

Will Corbett is a visitor at Samuel Gault's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jerry visited in Youngstown Sunday.

Howard Yeager, who was called to serve his country, left Sunday morning for Chillicothe. Friends and neighbors wish him good luck and God speed. Those who went to Youngstown from here to see him off were Arlie Miller and daughter Esther, Bertha Musser, Guy Musser, Mr. Brobst, Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew and Mr. John Schaffer.

Ruby Miller visited Josephine Yeager Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Arlie Miller has been sick.

Mrs. Ray Gretinger of Arizona is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gault.

Bertha Musser and Esther Miller visited at May's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Straley have accepted positions with Strouss & Hirschberg Co. in Youngstown.

Wm. Kern and Ralph O'Brien spent Sunday with Fred Straley.

Geo. Bowditch has built a new chicken house.

Mary Schrum spent Sunday evening with Mrs. James Grim.

In last week's Dispatch in the James Lynn fund report it should read $1 instead of 50c each—Ina Kennedy, Norman Messner, Howard Conli, Susie Bowditch, Lucy Andrews, Wylie and Velma Mayberry, Mrs. Steadful, W. B. Hopkins, John Jones, Wm. Patterson, M. Lute, Mrs. Sanzenbacher, Thomas Carlisle, Curtis Osborn, Walter Crum, John Snyder, Allen Snyder, Mr. Calvin.

The monthly missionary service was held Sunday evening at the Friends' church.

Miss Hazel Delzell, who has been quarantined with diphtheria the past few weeks, is able to be out and around.

Last Friday afternoon the H. S. boys played Sebring high in another close game. The score was a tie, 6 to 6, just as last week. They hope for a more decisive game Friday when the teams meet at Sebring.

Misses Helen and Edith Gilbert entertained the Standard Bears Friday evening. The program consisted of a piano solo by Margaret Primm, a vocal and instrumental selection, Miss Helen Gilbert, accompanied by her sister Edith on the violin; a reading by Miss Eleanor McMillan and the regular lesson review of the study book on Africa by Miss Bailey. There was a large attendance and the hosts served excellent refreshments.

Mrs. Chas. Bailey returned to Cleveland to his ministerial studies Tuesday. His wife and children will remain here and Mr. Bailey expects to return every week end.

Advertise in the Dispatch.

MILLVILLE

Oct. 10—Mr. and Mrs. John Allison and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stock of Salem.

Chas. Alvin of Youngstown spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howells and children spent Sunday afternoon in Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Oesch of Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roller of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr were Sunday evening callers of Miss Lucy Alverson.

Thomas A. Howell left for Youngstown Saturday to join the contingent enroute for Chillicothe, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese and Mrs. Ann Reese spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Nicholson.

The Courtney family of Salem has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Knopp and family.

Mrs. Isabel Roberts, who spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. George Orr, left Saturday for her home in Youngstown.

Clyde Jones of Youngstown called in the village Saturday.

E. J. Conkle of Akron was a caller here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Weldon, Miss Ada McCollum and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hammum composed a party that motored from Youngstown to spend the evening with friends in the village.

Mrs. Abbie Sell was a Lisbon visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weingart and children motored to Damascus Friday night.

S. L. Schopfer and son Robert were Alliance visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen were recent visitors in New Cumberland, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman motored to North Georgetown Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oesch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dixon of Canton were Sunday guests of R. C. Dixon and family.

Mrs. Morris Reese entertained the Larkin Club of Ten Wednesday. Visiting and a social time was enjoyed.

The hostess served a fine lunch for the seven members present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frantz and children of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore.

GREENFORD

Oct. 10—Grange hall was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruits, vegetables and fancywork on the occasion of the annual harvest home fair and chicken pie supper last Saturday night. Splendid music was furnished by an orchestra from Salem. The receipts were $144.